

Nsambya Hospital to host Nkozi Medical School

Prof. Paul D'Arbela displays an artistic impression of the proposed post-graduate block to be constructed at Nsambya Hospital. At least five doctors have registered to pursue a post graduate medical education programme at Uganda Martyrs University, Nkozi Medical School which starts on November

19. It will be housed at the hospital convent wing and will offer a three-year Masters of Medicine (M.Med) degree programmes in Internal Medicine, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Paediatrics, Surgery, Critical Care and Emergency Medicine.
PHOTO BY AL MAHDI SSENKABIRWA.